

L O N G I S L A N D

Pulse

dining
the arts
lifestyle

October 2008

On August 11, a representative from the Allstate Foundation and local educators presented a “Storm Watch” program at Middle Country Public Library in Centereach to a group of children from 2nd to 8th grade. Part of the “Allstate Readiness Series”, the kids learned how hurricanes and tornadoes form, and built their own meteorological instruments. www.allstate.com.

