

MCPL

QUARTERLY

NEWS & PROGRAMS AT MIDDLE COUNTRY PUBLIC LIBRARY

SPRING 2018

ALLSTATE FOUNDATION AWARDS $17,500 FOR “GOOD STARTS YOUNG”

Pictured l-r: Sue Bohrer-Braun, agent and Kayla Taylor, senior communications consultant, Allstate Insurance with Sophia Serlis-McPhillips, library director, Tracy LaStella, assistant library director and Kristine Tanzi, coordinator for teen services.

The Allstate Foundation has awarded the Middle Country Library Foundation a $17,500 “Good Starts Young” grant in support of programs encouraging youth empowerment and volunteerism through the Library’s Allstate Readiness Series. The Series showcases teen programming that fosters creativity, STEM skills and community engagement. For more information about the programs in this series, contact Kristine Tanzi at 631-585-9393 x230.