

Financial Empowerment Training for Social Service & Domestic Violence Agency Staff

Tuesday, October 13, 2009
9:00am-3:00pm
Middle Country Public Library
101 Eastwood Blvd., Centereach
631-585-9393 x 295

Presented by

Anzala B. Alozie, J.D.
Director of Services
NYS Coalition Against Domestic Violence
Albany, New York

This workshop will train advocates to use the Financial Empowerment Curriculum for Survivors of Domestic Violence in their work with women, providing an overview of the dynamics of domestic violence and the tactics abusers use to achieve financial control. Participants will gain a greater understanding of what constitutes financial abuse, how it impacts victims of domestic violence and how service providers can assist women in increasing their economic empowerment.

- Topics will include financial fundamentals; financial safety planning; overcoming financial fears, workplace safety, credit repair, budgeting, and job readiness as well as tips on integrating the curriculum content into your work with clients.
- The training will utilize the Financial Empowerment Curriculum for Survivors of Domestic Violence: Moving Ahead Through Financial Management, developed by the Allstate Foundation & the National Network to End Domestic Violence.
