

ALLSTATE FOUNDATION AWARDS $20,000 FOR “GOOD STARTS YOUNG”

Pictured l-r: Kristine Tanzi, coordinator for teen services and Tracy LaStella, assistant library director with Kayla Taylor, senior communications consultant, Sue Bohrer Braun, agent and Michele Martin, agent; Allstate Insurance.

The Allstate Foundation has awarded the Middle Country Library Foundation a $20,000 “Good Starts Young” grant in support of programs encouraging youth empowerment and volunteerism. The grant will support the library’s Allstate Readiness Series, which will showcase teen programming that fosters creativity, STEM skills and community engagement. For more information on the programs in this series, call Kristine Tanzi at (631) 585-9393 x230.