

The TIMES

of Middle Country

Serving Centereach • Selden • Northern Lake Grove

Volume 4, No. 30

November 13, 2008

75¢

Photo courtesy Allstate

Allstate awards $50,000 to MC Library Foundation

The Allstate Foundation presented a check for $50,000 to the Middle Country Library Foundation at the start of the Business Contingency Planning Program and Fair at Middle Country Public Library on Sept. 18, launching the Allstate Readiness Series, a year-long calendar of events to be held at the library over the coming year. The series will focus on issues such as catastrophe readiness, teen safe driving, financial empowerment for victims of domestic violence and others. Information on the series can be found on the new website also launched at the event, www.ReadinessBeginsWithMe.org.

For more information about the series of events at MCPL, call 585-9393, ext. 224.

Pictured from left, Jeff Freund, Allstate agent; Krista Conte, senior manager, Allstate Foundation; Sandra Feinberg, MCPL director; and state Sen. John Flanagan.